

The Many Faces of R.O.C.K.

To Potential Donors and Contributors:

Preparations for the 2012 Ride On Center For Kids (R.O.C.K.) annual Barn Dance are well underway. The Barn Dance will be held on Saturday, March 24th, and this year's theme will be "The Many Faces of R.O.C.K."

Last year's Barn Dance was a great success, and we invite you to help us make this event even better. Our goal is to raise funds to support the facility and programming offered at R.O.C.K. We can accomplish this goal in 2012 by offering unique and outstanding auction items, and we need your help to ensure the success of this event.

We are looking for donations of goods and services from the community that R.O.C.K.'s services support. Because we offer both a silent and a live auction, we are able to present a wide variety of offerings to entice our bidding audience. I invite you to get involved in this very worthwhile endeavor.

The attendees at the R.O.C.K. Barn Dance always love the opportunity to bid on special events or vacation getaways. Items such as those listed below are always popular.

- Airline tickets
- Stays at a hotel, a condo, or a vacation home
- Tickets to sporting events and concerts
- Services from a private chef, bartender, or caterer
- A show by a music group

Attendees at the Barn Dance love to "shop local," so this is a great opportunity to showcase your business to a loyal clientele by offering goods and services from local Williamson County businesses.

Please consider how you might be able to join us, the R.O.C.K. Barn Dance Committee, in presenting an outstanding array of live and silent auction items to raise money for this vital service organization that assists those in need in our community. Take a moment to read the enclosed materials and remember that you are always welcome to come out and visit us at R.O.C.K. to see first-hand the remarkable work being done.

Thank you for your time and consideration. You can contact me, Christie Williams Roberts at (512) 966-7771 or cwilliams@millsandwilliams.com.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Christie Williams Roberts
